IDAO DE TILLARD RETAINS HIS WORLD CHAMPION TITLE AT PARIS-VINCENNES

The 104th edition of the Prix d'Amérique Legend Race 2025 at Paris-Vincennes was a thrilling, emotional day. Idao de Tillard won the Sulky World Championship title for the second year running, confirming his legendary status with a second star to his name. The grandstands vibrated in a 100% American atmosphere, making this event the highlight of the trotting year.

36,000 PEOPLE GO WILD FOR TEDDY RINER

36000 spectators from all over the world enjoyed an exceptional opening show marked by the arrival of Teddy Riner, 4 times Olympic Judo champion, who arrived with the trophy, followed by the presentation of the 18 drivers. A few minutes before the race, a parade of the Garde Républicaine added a majestic touch to prepare the ground for the world championship.

IDAO DE TILLARD STILL AT THE TOP

After winning the Prix d'Amérique Legend Race last year, the champion sire from Françoise Chaunion's breeding farm once again made the difference on the track, winning ahead of Just Love You and Go on Boy. This second successive Prix d'Amérique Legend Race sees him enter a new category of champion, as his trainer Thierry Duvaldestin explained after the race.
